

Anita Roberts, Founder

Anita Roberts has been working in the field of violence prevention and women's empowerment since 1976. She is the founder and guiding force behind the internationally acclaimed, Safeteen Program. Chosen as a Canadian representative on Violence Against Women to the United Nations, Roberts is a visionary, inspirational speaker and award winning author. Her book, Safeteen: Powerful Alternatives to Violence has been translated into Japanese and Chinese. Anita has traveled to five continents to empower women, train educators and parents and to teach youth to hold their power and speak their truth.

Bill Pozzobon

Bill Pozzobon has worked on gender and violence issues with youth and educators since 1999. In his role as Director of the Safeteen Boy's Program, Bill facilitates youth workshops, trains new Safeteen Agents for Change, and co-leads Educator Trainings locally, nationally and internationally. Bill is an inspirational speaker who brings compassionate insight, the power of personal choice, and hope for a better world to his work. With humour and skill Bill invites the boys and men he works with to step into their full humanity with dignity and courage.
